CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR GENERAL KUROPATKIN

Russian Army Forced Back 25 Miles After Frightful Loss.

Battle Continues. But It is a Rear-Guard Action to Prevent a Rout—Russian Casualties Estimated at 30.000 Men.

Tokio, Oct. 15, 8 p. m.-General Kuropatkin's southern advance has been beaten back and his army is in retreat. eH is, however, still deggedly fighting, so as to spare the Russian army from an utter rout. Field Marshal Oyama's triumphant troops have driven the Russians north to a line along the Sha (Sakhe?) river. They are vigorously pressing the pursuit and will probably inflict still more severe damage on

The fighting continued all along the entire line today and the end It seems to be impossible for the Russians to rally, and they will probably be pressed back across the Hun river. Tokio, Oct. 16, 9 a. m.—The latest advices are that the Russians left 4,500 dead in front of General Kuroki's army alone. The Russian losses there are estimated at 20,000 men.

Tokio, Oct. 16, 11 a. m .- General Oku reports that he found and buried 2,000 Russians before the battle of Oct. 14.

lack of official news, the undoubted retrogression from General Kuropatkin's aggressive move and the enormous Ruesian losses in men and guns, compared with the optimistic reports from Tokio, all combine to prepare the public for anything short of a total rout of the Russians. Nevertheless, the reports of the newspaper correspondents at the front, while admitting the heavy losses of the Russian troops and their retreat beyond Shakhe, describe the soldiers as fighting with undiminished ardor. One dispatch even hints at extremely encouraging news from the castern flank, but counsels patience and official confirmation before accepting it as true.

The congressional investigation invoked, he said, looks like a threat inended for intimidation purposes. Continuing he said the proposal espoused in the platform might be viewed with more complacency and less seriousness had not the attitude of the present occupant of the White House been that of ill-concealed hostility to those whose otions of social equality differed so radically from his his own. It is a fact, demonstrated by an examination of the last census in connection with the election returns in ordinary years, that the Democrats have actually had a ma-jority of the white vote of the southern, eastern middle and western states to enable them to control the presidency, the negro vote from those states being xcluded from the computation and the southern electoral vote as at present nd that the Republicans have only been enabled to win the national elec-tions through the colored. The fact speaks for itself.

The figures thus indicate that this is till a white man's government and nust necessarily largely remain so. This was Mr. Hill's last speech in Russians Retake a Position Only to
